IOM, in coordination with UNHCR and camp management, conducted 4 non-food item (NFI) distributions in Darashakran Camp, Gawer Gosik Camp, Domiz Camp, and Gawilan Camp. Distributions were funded by the U.S. State Department’s Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration (PRM), OCHA Central Emergency Response Fund (CERF), and the Government of Japan’s Official Development Assistance (ODA).

2,008 NFI kits benefitting 10,051 Syrian refugees
IOM and humanitarian partners are continuing to scale up their services to meet the challenges posed by this protracted crisis with a particular emphasis on protection and the provision of life-saving assistance to displaced Syrian and host communities inside Syria and in the region. For 2014 under both the Syrian Humanitarian Assistance Response Plan (SHARP) and the Regional Response Plan (RRP 6), IOM regionally is appealing to the international community for nearly 150 million USD.
